

Content Map

One action, throughout: book a consultation call. Case placement rule: lead with the strongest evidence first.

1. Landing Page

- Headline — [CLAIM]
- Problem line — the gap: parents save, few invest specifically for the child
- Case (lead) — a parent heard this reasoning and invested in his daughter's name that same week
- AMFI credential line
- CTA: Get the free guide

2. Confirmation State

- Confirmation line — guide is on its way
- Expectation set — where to look, roughly when

3. The Guide

- Why early investing matters (hook, restates [CLAIM])
- Case (secondary) — parents who saw an early draft regretted not knowing sooner
- Four-column comparison (■0 / SIP from 3 / from 13 / from 15)
- Corpus at 18 + illustrative-rate disclaimer
- Children's-specific mutual funds — schemes unnamed
- How investing actually works, step by step
- Closing, direct link — CTA: Book your free call

4. Book a Call Page

- Short claim + AMFI credential (for cold arrivals)
- What the call covers
- CTA: Pick a time

Still Need to Gather

- SIP maturity figures, verified against your own calculator
- AMFI registration number/certificate, so the credential line is checkable
- Permission from your friend to use his story, named or anonymised
- A short quote, with permission, from at least one parent who reacted with regret
- Final guide document, once written and designed

- Logo exported to PNG/favicon formats (done here in draft; production export still needed)
- Licensed or owned photography, once selected

Identity Kit

Logo / Favicon

A sapling inside an open ring — growth, held, not boxed in. Same mark, scaled down, for favicon use.

Palette

Name	Hex	Use
Ink Navy	#1B2A3A	Primary — headings, credential lines, text
Warm Amber	#E3A857	Accent — calls to action
Muted Teal	#3E7C6B	Secondary accent — verification tags, AMFI/SEBI mentions
Paper	#F0F2F4	Background

Typography

Display — Fraunces (headlines, the one-line claim). Warm, humanist serif, not the high-contrast default.

Body — IBM Plex Sans (everything else — paragraphs, numbers, labels). Plain and legible, no personality competing with the claim.

Style Note

Trust and growth, stated plainly — navy, teal, and amber instead of the usual cream-and-terracotta or black-and-neon defaults. Nothing in the kit shouts; the claim does the talking.
